With the exception of our Co-Occurring Program, Tubman's clinical services are provided to people of all genders, and individual services are provided for youth and adolescents.

Chemical dependency treatment is provided through a state licensed 245G Substance Use Disorder outpatient program. Chemical health assessment services are also available to men and youth. The Relationship Violence Intervention Program provides therapeutic treatment for self-referred and court-ordered domestic abuse offenders of all genders. Tubman's relationship violence counseling program is designed to help people hold themselves accountable to end their violent behavior and maintain healthy relationships. Tubman's Voices in Prevention (VIP) program is a school-based violence prevention program for middle and high school students. This culturally relevant and interactive curriculum provides youth with the tools to assess, reflect, prevent, respond and take action to address dating violence and other challenges in order to improve personal and societal conditions. Taught by Tubman youth educators, the program serves students in over 20 public, alternative, and charter schools in Minneapolis, St. Paul, throughout suburban Ramsey and Washington Counties, and the surrounding metro.

NorthStar Youth Outreach Center is largely a volunteer supported drop-in center based in the community at Maplewood Mall. The center provides advocacy, safety planning and connections to a range of additional community resources, like access to counseling, housing, career, legal, health, recreation, spiritual and educational assistance, computers, laundry, supplies, food and clothing, and creative art spaces.

Workshops and Support Groups:

Additional support is also provided by Tubman staff, interns, and professional volunteers in the community, with a range of opportunities for people seeking to make and sustain changes in their lives. These services are designed to help participants meet their basic needs during crisis, remain self-sufficient during transition, prevent future crises and maintain stability in the face of economic and life challenges.
